You can use this document as both an instruction set and as a template into which you can type your own text.

[In-text citation]:

If reference is made in the text to a publication written by less than two authors the name of all authors should be used (Hall and Fitzgerald, 2006).

If reference is made in the text to a publication written by more than two authors the name of the first author should be used followed by “et al.,” (Hall et al., 2008).

[The text should be justified, Times New Roman and unindented. Symbols should be specified and spelled out for the first time, thereafter the symbol used. SI-units should be used wherever possible. If other units and non-standard abbreviations cannot be avoided, they should be defined at first mention]
