If reference is made in the text to a publication written by less than two authors the name of all authors should be used (Hall & Fitzgerald, 2006).

If reference is made in the text to a publication written by more than two authors the name of the first author should be used followed by “et al.,” (Hall et al., 2008).

For more than two references by the same author, list the citations in chronological sequence with the earliest first, (Azmi, 2015; 2017).

For two or more articles by the same author within the same year: (Azmi, 2015a; 2015b)

When two or more articles by different authors are cited at the same time, list the citations in chronological sequence with the earliest first: (Azmi, 2015; Afzan 2016; Wahi 2017).

[The text should be justified, Times New Roman (font size 12) and unindented. Symbols should be specified and spelled out for the first time, thereafter the symbol used. SI-units should be used wherever possible. If other units and non-standard abbreviations cannot be avoided, they should be defined at first mention]

Materials and Methods

Subheading

[Heading and subheading should not be run within the text. They should be typed on a separate line without indentation. Use bold face, capitalize each word letter type and use italics letter type for subheadings]
